

Subject to the terms and conditions specified in this Invitation, items included in the list attached hereto will be sold during auction sale which will be conducted at:

US EMBASSY BANGUI COMPOUND, AVENUE DAVID DACKO on Saturday 6th, August 2016 at 0900 am.

A-Conditions and provisions of the auction

1-The sale is opened to all parties. An access (Registration) fees will be paid by all participants to the Embassy cashier office on August 2nd until the limited participants number is reached from 10.00-12.00 AM and from 14.00-15.00.

2-All customers must be registered before participating for the auction.

3-Registration will be limited to first 40 customers who call the following number + (236) 75735636 from 8.00-12.30 and from 13.30-16.00 starting August 1st.

4-Bidders are invited to visit properties to be sold prior making offer. Properties will be available for visit in the Embassy compound on August 4th from 8.00 to 12.00 am.

5-Properties are sold "as is". The U.S government makes no guarantee, warranty, or representation, express or implied, as to the quality, kind, type, size, description or condition of the property or its fitness for any use purpose. This sale is final.

B-Registration

1-Bidders must get registration in order to participate to the auction. Registration will be available starting August 1st (8.00-12.30 and from 13.30-16.00) until the maximum participants numbers is reached.

2-Once registration done, bidders are invited to pay to the Embassy cashier registration fees of CFA50.000 from August 2nd (10.00-12.00 AM and 14.00-15.00).

3-Registration fees are fully refundable if the bidder does not win any lot and will also be applied to any lots won during the auction.

C- Conduct of the auction

1- On auction day, bidders will be admitted to auction site at 8.00AM.

2-The Auctioneer will provide bidders with the list of property to be sold, as well as sale the conditions of sale.

3- The auctioneer will announces the conduct of sale

4-The auctioneer will offer each lot separately according to the sequence list. The highest bidder is the winner.

D. Payment

1-A warehouse member will fill out the bill of sale automatically with the name of the winner with the right amount to be paid to the cashier.

US EMBASSY BANGUI-AUGUST 6TH, 2016 AUCTION SALE

2-Only when the auction is completed bidders will go for payment of items won. He/she must have their Bill of sale established by the warehouse member.

3-Payment will only be accepted by cash. No personal checks or any other method of payment will be accepted. All sales must be paid in full on August 6th. Registration fees will automatically be applied to any winning bids. Refund of registration fees will only be made if the winning lots are valued less than the deposit.

4-Since this sale is public all participants should paid for what they have bid for otherwise registration fees will not be reimbursed.

5-All lots and customs taxes must be paid in full prior the removal of items from the compound.

6- Non-winning bidders must collect their registration fees the following week after presentation of their proof of payment.

E. Delivery

1. The property is sold only at the Embassy. Delivery and transportation of the property away from the Embassy is the responsibility of the purchaser and shall be accomplished at his/her expense.

2. After payment made in full included customs taxes, bidders are expected to pick up items on the day of the auction and/or no later than August 10th.

3. After proof of sale and customs fees bring both items to the warehouse employee for verification of the lot. The employee will mark on the bill of sale "delivered", included the date and signs it. He/she will keep one copy for the warehouse. The Bill of sale must be verified by the guard as the bidder leaves the compound with the items awarded to him.

4. All items must be removed from the compound, no later than August 10th at 5.00 PM. If property is not removed within the time limit specified above; the United States Government retains the right to keep it for the next property auction without any refund of money.

F. General

1. The auction will be conducted under the supervision of the Property Disposal Officer, a duly appointed successor or a duly authorized representative, who reserves the right to reject any or all offers for any of the items sold and or withdraw from the sale any items as deemed best for the interests of the United States Government.

2. The auction sale will be conducted in accordance with the procedures outlined in this auction rules and provisions.

3. No offers for any lots included in the bid list will be accepted prior to the auction date and hour.

4. All participants in this sale must agree to the terms and conditions, of this invitation.

5. The English language version of this invitation and provisions is the official one and shall always govern.

6. All participants are reminded that no large bags, knives, or other weapons, cell-phones, tablets, personal computers are permitted to the chancery and or to the auction site.

US EMBASSY BANGUI-AUGUST 6TH, 2016 AUCTION SALE